

A talk on Battisford's important place in Medieval England 11th to 15th century

Tuesday 26th November 2024 at 7:00pm

Battisford Village Hall

You are cordially invited to the Village Hall to learn more about the importance of Battisford in Medieval England

David Card - Introduction

Terry Lewis – extracts from his research into his Cambridge University doctorate thesis and the importance of Battisford during the late medieval period.

Maggie Knock – St Johns Commandery of the Knights Hospitallers

Andrew Britton – Bishops Hall and the Bishops of Norwich

Questions

To assist with numbers for seating and teas and coffees please email david.card 1@Btopenworld.com to reserve your places.

There is no charge for the event, but any donation in aid of Battisford's St Marys Church would be appreciated

Sponsored by David & Eileen Card

Promoted by CARE Suffolk – Community Alliance for Rural Environment